Re: Webpro, Inc., v. Jill Schneider-Petrou and Arthur Petrou
Case no. 07-CIV-4699 (LMM) (AJP), U.S. District Court, S.D.N.Y.

Dear Judge Peck:

Our firm serves as counsel to Jill Schneider Petrou in the above-captioned matter. As you know, the parties intended to file executed settlement documents with the Court today. While the documents are in substantially final form, we are unable to execute them today. The parties found out yesterday that the plaintiff has been sold, and we need to trace through the ownership of the cause of action to ensure that the proper parties are executing the settlement agreement. In addition, we have just learned that there is a second mortgage on the property that is the subject of the complaint which mortgage was previously unknown to the parties. Both of these matters will require some technical amendments to the settlement documents. We hope to analyze the information and make the necessary technical changes over the next few days. We, therefore, beg your indulgence in granting us additional time in which to file the executed settlement documents with the Court.
